

NULLARBOR AND WA WILDFLOWERS

Sunday 29th August to Sunday 5th September, 2010

Join us in Adelaide for a special journey in an exclusive private carriage aboard the Indian Pacific, one of the world's great trains. The Sir John Forrest Carriage named in honour of the heroic explorer, accommodates a maximum of 6 passengers in 3 bedrooms. To make this renown transcontinental journey in consummate style you will have a private lounge and dining room with a dedicated chef and hospitality attendant. The cabins are well appointed with ensuite facilities, quality bedding and first class appointments.

For our arrival in Perth, Insights Tours has chartered a coach for a city tour then 4 days of touring the famed wildflower areas as far north as Kalbarri National Park and the Pinnacles rock formations of Nambung National Park.

SIR JOHN FORREST CARRIAGE

The Sir John Forrest Carriage is a special executive carriage. It boasts large panoramic windows, a large dining table with comfortable chairs, leather lounges and bar area. It accommodates six guests in style and comfort. There is a double bed cabin and two twin cabins. The twin cabins convert from a three seat lounge to an upper and lower berth by night. The cabins are well appointed with ensuite facilities, quality bedding and appointments similar to Gold Kangaroo first class.

The carriage will be at one end of the train to ensure the privacy of Insights Tours' guests on this tour. You will have the privacy of your own bedroom, dining, lounge area and bar. Your own chef will prepare all meals which will be served in the Sir John Forrest Carriage by a dedicated hospitality attendant. Upon our arrival in Western Australia we have arranged a private tour of the famed wildflowers which are usually resplendent at this time of year. We invite you to dress for dinner with black tie for gentlemen and after five for ladies. Table d'hote dinner menus will consist of two choices for all three courses. Wines can be purchased on board or you may bring your preferred vintage with you.

Day 3

Tuesday 31st August

Perth

We are scheduled to arrive at 9.10am East Perth Terminal where we will be board our chartered coach for today's tour of Perth. We tour one of the world's most isolated cities – Perth established in 1829, is gloriously situated on the banks of the Swan River. The tour highlights include a visit to the port city of Fremantle and the famed Kings Park where we will have a guided walk. The Park is a magnificent 400 hectare reserve which overlooks central Perth and hosts the Wildflower Festival.

Overnight: Perth

Day 4Wednesday 1st September*Perth to Dongara

Today we leave Perth travelling via the town of Muchea and the Bindoon region known for its wildflowers on our way to New Norcia, Australia's only Monastery town and famous for its Spanish architecture. The art gallery and museum at New Norcia will be highlights of our private guided tour. Then we continue through more wildflower areas to the town of Moora for lunch. Afternoon travel via the towns of Carnamah and Mingenew to the coastal town of Dongara first surveyed in 1852, it was originally established to service the needs of the surrounding community of pioneer settlers. Today, both Dongara and Port Denison are well known for their crayfishing, fishing and wildflowers.

Overnight: Dongara

New Norcia

Benedictines founded New Norcia in 1846. The original vision was to create a largely self-sufficient village based on agriculture. However, after the decimation of the local population by introduced diseases in the 1860's, the main activity was on giving a practical education to the indigenous children who were brought to New Norcia from all over Western Australia.

Day 5Thursday 2nd September*Dongara to Kalbarri

After breakfast we depart Dongara towards Geraldton, passing through the Chapman Valley and the historic town of Greenough. We arrive at Geraldton in time for morning tea then visit the HMAS Sydney Memorial followed by a town tour which includes the striking St Francis Xavier Catholic Cathedral. Lunch will be at Northampton – one of the oldest settlements outside Perth and classified by the National Trust as an Historic Town. We travel north to Kalbarri and the Murchison River via the coastal road and Horrocks. At Lynton we will see the convict ruins. As we head towards the Kalbarri National Park we will pass the new wind farms that generate electricity for the region. We will stop and view many wonderful wildflower locations along the way. As we approach Kalbarri we will visit Bluff Point and Red Bluff for the majestic views of the Indian Ocean.

Overnight: Kalbarri

HMAS Sydney Memorial. Situated on Mount Scott, and overlooking Geraldton, this unusual and impressive memorial commemorates the deaths of the crew of the HMAS Sydney in 1941

Day 6

Friday 3rd September

Kalbarri to Geraldton

This morning we visit the Kalbarri National Park which surrounds the town of Kalbarri. You will see the tremendous gorges of the Murchison River and abundant wildflowers. We will visit the stunning lookouts at Nature's Window, a natural rock formation high above the magnificent gorge and the famous Z Bend lookout.

Then we travel to Geraldton - the commercial centre of the Mid West exporting iron ore, mineral sands, grains and lobster. Today we will discover the Geraldton region seeing wildflowers famous to the area, learning of the history of this region and the architecture and significance of the city's buildings.

Kalbarri National Park occupies an area of 183,000 hectares and contains an area of rugged terrain and the Murchison Gorge. We will have the opportunity of 2 short walks to lookouts along the river gorge. At Z-Bend a 500m walk brings you to a breathtaking point where the gorge plunges 150 metres to the river below. Nature's Window is reached by 400m walk. This natural rock arch superbly frames the upstream view of the switchback course of the Murchison River.

Overnight: Geraldton

Day 7 Saturday 4th September Geraldton to Perth

Today we travel south via the coastal route discovering more wildflower sites enroute to Cervantes - a small fishing town and gateway to the extraordinary Nambung National Park. After lunch in Cervantes we visit the Pinnacles – hundreds of limestone pillars in the yellow sand desert of Nambung National Park. These extraordinary limestone formations vary in size and shape from the very small to 3.5m high. These unusually shaped rocks have been likened to tombstones, termite mounds and were thought to be a ruined city by some of the early passing mariners. We will have ample opportunity to walk and drive amongst the Pinnacles.

Leaving the Pinnacles we can enjoy our last wildflower scenes as we travel south to Perth where we arrive in the late afternoon.

Insights Tours

Insights Tours is a tour company operated by Paul and John Tuckerman. Our philosophy is to provide a tour with a spectrum of interesting visits, inspections and conveyances. Each tour is uniquely arranged to encompass the most interesting sights of the regions visited. Insights Tours engages our own guides to ensure that our passengers have the best insight into the location being visited.

Passenger numbers are limited to ensure a comfortable travelling experience and to ensure that visits and guided tours are of maximum benefit.

Each of our tours is personally escorted ensuring you can relax in the confidence that all of the pesky administrative details and arrangements are being taken care of. There is always the chance that our itinerary could be delayed or curtailed in some way beyond our control. Except for prolonged or unexpected events, the tour will be conducted as closely as possible to the itinerary stated above.

Perth and coach touring

Insights Tours has chartered a luxury modern air conditioned 24 seat coach. Our coach captain will provide commentary during the tour and Insights Tours has arranged specialist guides for our visits to New Norcia and King's Park.

Luggage

We recommend you limit your luggage to one suitcase and 1 piece of hand luggage per person to ensure maximum spaciousness in the cabins of the Sir John Forrest Carriage.

Post tour arrangements

Insights Tours can assist you in making your arrangements, We are official agents for Great Southern Railway – the operators of the Indian Pacific, The Ghan and The Overland. We are also offering a 4 day Southern Region wildflower tour of Western Australia. Full details from our office.
